

তারিখ ... ..
গুরু ... ..

১৩ ২০০২

BCL activist gunned down at Fatickchhari

Chittagong Bureau

CHITTAGONG, Aug 12: - A BCL worker was killed and five others injured in a clash between the activists of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) and Islami Chhatra Shibir (ICS) at village Shah Nagar of Fatickchhari on Sunday.

The deceased was identified as Osman (28).

Police said that the clash took place when the activists of ICS led by Jamal attacked the BCL activists called 'Nizam Group' over establishing supremacy in the area at Shah Nagar village of Lelang union at around 9 p.m. Local sources said that at least 200 rounds of shots were exchanged in the two hour-long fight living five activists of both the groups injured.

The ICS activists shot at Osman when he came out of his house with a weapon in hand. He sustained bullet and died instantly. The attackers left the place when police arrived at the spot at 11 p.m.